IMPORTANT GOVERNMENT ORDERS

FINANCIAL SECRETARIAT

Issues instructions for the prompt disposal of Pension Cases of the Retired Officers.

OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM.

ORDER No. FL. 6344-6436—S. & A. 312-51-2, DATED BANGALORE, THE 25TH JANUARY 1952.

Of late, instances of inordinate delay in the disposal of pension cases are coming to the notice of Government frequently. The retired officers have been representing to Government the hardship caused to them on account of the non-settlement of their pension claims. The Accountant-General has been repeatedly bringing to the notice of Government that several pension cases pending with him could not be finalised for want of particulars from the Heads of Departments, regarding service, pay, leave taken, etc., of the retired officers. The absence of the proper maintenance and periodical scrutiny of the service records of the retired officers by the departmental officers has been stated to be the cause of undue delay in the settlement of pension cases.

The Heads of Departments are requested to impress upon all the officers concerned the need to pay proper attention and avoid delay in the disposal of pension papers at every stage.

M. SHAMANNA,
Secretary to Government,
Finance Department.
